Cash and cars the bonus catchword

The Provincial Bonus is back!

Starting with tickets issued for the May 17th draw, Provincial players will have an instant chance to drive away a new automobile on the Cash and Cars Bonus.

The Bonus period will last five weeks, during which the instant portion stub attached to all Provincial tickets will also feature an additional game.

On the special Instant Bonus game, finding three matching symbols on that scratch makes you a winner. Cash prizes are $10, $25 and $100 — and you'll win your choice of five fabulous vehicles from Chrysler Canada Ltd., if you find three "CAR/AUTO" symbols on your Bonus scratch.

Here's the impressive list of vehicles you have to choose from:

1) Chrysler Le Baron — an upscale 4-door sedan that says you've arrived … in class.

2) Chrysler Dynasty LE — a 4-door sedan that says you've arrived … with the family.

3) Plymouth Voyager LE or Dodge Caravan LE — a mini-van that says you've arrived … with all your camping gear.

4) Chrysler Daytona IROC — a 2-door liftback that says you've arrived … before everyone else.

5) Jeep YJ Renegade — a 2-door 4x4 that says you've arrived … no matter what the roads were like.

So be sure to check your Provincial tickets for the Bonus scratch.

No secret: it's Musical Spin

Kelowna's Richard Journeay couldn't keep a secret.

Especially from his wife of 43 years, Blanche.

The secret? $10,000!

That's how much Richard won on the day he scratched his lucky Musical Spin instant ticket.

The 72-year-old retired diesel mechanic had been for his "usual walk" and decided to buy some scratch tickets.

On his second-to-last ticket, Richard came up with a $5 win — and thought that would be it.

Then came the Musical Spin ticket — and two matching $10,000 symbols!

But Richard had forgotten that it only takes two matching symbols on the centre portion of a Musical Spin ticket to win.

RICHARD JOURNEAY

"I couldn't believe it," he says, "so I phoned the lottery office and told them what I had — and they confirmed I had won $10,000!"

Blanche was in Vancouver, visiting friends. Richard wanted to claim his $10,000 prize in Kamloops and surprise his wife when she returned to Kelowna.

As they spoke on the phone, he couldn't keep the big news secret!

"I won $10,000!" he said.

"No way!" his wife replied. "You're pulling my leg!"

"No, really!" he said. "I did!"

And so it was that Richard travelled to Vancouver instead, collecting his $10,000 cheque at B.C. Lottery Corporation's Richmond sales office.

It's no secret — Musical Spin has lucky B.C. residents out for their own musical spin — as they hum their way to collect a winning cheque!

Snow use waiting to plow into Joker's Wild

James Pollock spent the winter using the plow on his half-ton truck to burrow through five feet of snow around Quesnel.

Now he's plowing through something more colourful — $10,000!

The 61-year-old retired road foreman with the Department of Highways didn't have to dig very far to do it, either.

"I was in the store checking my 6/49 tickets and I had $2 in change," he says, "so I bought two Joker's Wild."

The store clerk kidded James that she had never sold a winning ticket worth more than $2.

He scratched one of his Joker's Wild tickets, and saw two Aces.

"All you need is a Joker!" said the clerk.

"You mean like this?" said a startled James, as the Joker appeared.

"She practically dug it out of my hand, she was so excited," he says. "She was more excited than I was! I'm getting too old to get excited like that!"

But James isn't too old to enjoy his $10,000 prize with wife Dorothy. "Snow" doubt about that!

Keno easy to compute for Burnaby whiz

As a computer operator, Colleen Joyner of Burnaby has it all figured out.

BC Keno, that is!

Colleen and her fiance James Woods just can't stop winning with the popular game.

In their most recent win, James claimed $8,000.

There have been lottery wins for Colleen as well, including prizes of $2,000, $1,200 and a 1982 share in a group play on Lotto 6/49.

But nothing tops the numbers this computer whiz added up to win with BC Keno — twice!

Joyce decided to visit the New M & L Food Centre to take part in the game she enjoys playing six days a week.

"I went with a gut feeling," she says. "I bought lots more tickets this time. James thought I was nuts!"

COLLEEN JOYNER

But Colleen knew what she was doing — when two tickets became winners!

Each prize was worth $20,140! That brought her total prize for having "double vision" to $40,280!

Joyce is a whiz with all kinds of figures — especially the lottery kind!

"I have a very good instinct about numbers," she says. "I'm a positive thinker — you have to be!"

She didn't waste any time thinking positively about a newer car, picking up a 1986 Pontiac Parisienne just after winning.

"Mint condition, all the toys — power everything!" she exclaims.

The 61-year-old mother of three, grandmother of nine and great-grandmother to a little girl may play lots of lottery games, but she still finds the time to fit in lots of crafts, knitting, crocheting, homemaking, housekeeping and baking.

Born in Winnipeg, she moved to B.C. in 1944, and to Burnaby eight years ago.

And there's still no stopping this "Gran on the go."

"I'm going to Reno!" she says.

That'll be her Keno Reno trip!

LANNIE MOODY

Hats off to cash across the border

Lannie Moody is from the United States, so he had a little trouble deciding which instant lottery game he wanted to play when he visited beautiful British Columbia.

"Which is the most popular?" he asked the retailer at a lottery centre in Balfour.

"I don't know!" she replied.

So it was up to Lannie, a 34-year-old independent log truck driver from Sandpoint, Idaho, to decide for himself.

He took a Joker's Wild.

Good choice, Lannie!

Suddenly a vacation in the Kootenays became a whole lot more — $10,000 to be exact!

Born and raised in Sandpoint, Lannie loves to cross the border in search of B.C.'s boating, camping and visits to the Ainsworth Hot Springs.

This time, he had the added pleasure of visiting the B.C. Lottery Corporation's head office in Kamloops!

"It hasn't sunk in yet," he says of his win. "I started getting excited when I was walking across the parking lot."

Part of Lannie's win goes straight to helping his niece Chrissy, who's attending college in Coeur d'Alene.

Lannie's happy to extend a helping hand across the border!

Sing a song of cash from scratch

Music is in the air, wherever you go in British Columbia.

It's more than the sweet sounds of the Music '91 attractions, too. It's Musical Spin, the popular new scratch game with three chances to sing a winning tune, like "I'm in the Money!"

You'll see a familiar sight on the left-hand portion of the ticket — the province itself. That tells you the game, which is available only in B.C., will be spinning out its golden hits to where they belong — British Columbians like you!

Find three matching prize amounts under the B.C.-shaped scratch, and you'll win $2, $5, $10, $50, $100, $1,000 or $10,000.

You only need to find TWO matching symbols in the middle scratch portion to win. You can win instant cash prizes by matching two alike prize symbols— $2, $5, $10, $50, $100, $1,000 or $10,000 — but there's more.

If you find TWO wheel symbols, you'll be participating in a special lottery program — where you'll be spinning a giant money wheel for up to $100,000!

And all contestants who find those two wheels are guaranteed to win at least $5,000.

The third scratch on Musical Spin is for merchandise prizes, just for finding ONE symbol under the latex.

Find "PEPSI (2 x 500 ml)" and you've won two 500-ml bottles of Pepsi or Diet Pepsi to be claimed at your local Pepsi dealer.

Find the words "AirBC TRIP" and you've won a trip for two to anywhere AirBC flies.

Find the words "AIR CANADA TRIP" and you've won a trip for two to anywhere Air Canada flies. Claim your trip at one of the three B.C. Lottery offices.

There's only one other possible message waiting under the latex of this play area. It reads "TRY AGAIN" — and that's just what you'll want to do on this exciting game.

NUMBERS NOTES

In hockey, some of the greatest players wear "double" numbers, like Wayne Gretzky's 99, Ray Bourque's 77 and Mario Lemieux's 66. Now lotteries are doing it too! The Extra began strutting its doubles when numbers 11 and 88 were among the four winning numbers drawn on April 17th. That was followed by number 44 on the next draw and numbers 33 and 99 the draw after that. Numbers 55 and 66 kept the streak going on the next draw, as did 44 and 77 on the next draw. Finally, 44 made its third appearance on May 4th, ending the streak.

O Canada Day fun means Special Edition

July 1st has been a day of celebration in Canada for 123 years — and this year, there's one more special reason to celebrate.

It's called Special Edition.

That's the $20 ticket, with a total of $25 million in cash and prizes to give away. And, on Canada Day, some lucky winner could be carting off the grand prize — $5 million!

Even before the Canada Day draw, you could celebrate a Special Edition victory.

There's the instant scratch on the right-hand portion of the ticket. On a detachable stub, the latex-covered play area could make you a winner just seconds after you buy your ticket — of a Free Ticket, $25, $50, $100, $1,000 or $10,000.

Before Canada Day, there are also five Early Bird draws — held every Sunday beginning May 26th. Every week, one number will be drawn for $50,000, four numbers for $10,000 each and 20 numbers for $5,000 each.

And you can be an Early Bird winner even after the draws are over!

On July 1st, the prizes are truly amazing. Up for grabs is that $5 million grand prize, as well as two prizes of $1 million each. There are subsidiary prizes for those "millionaire numbers" only.

There are also five prizes of $500,000 each and five prizes of $100,000 each. Add to that 1,000 prizes of $1,000 each — all of which are for complete and exact matches only.

So you can see why this Canada Day could be your best one ever. With a Special Edition ticket in hand, of course!

RUBY HALL

Robson's Ruby has a secret

Robson's Ruby Hall had a burning secret — worth $117,836.40!

That's how much Ruby won when she correctly matched five of the six winning Lotto 6/49 numbers drawn, plus the bonus.

But she didn't tell anyone at Kiro Manor in Trail, where she works as a care aide.

And she didn't tell any of her four children or six grandchildren — until it was time for a mortgage-burning party!

Ruby was ready to burn up the phone lines with her good news after watching the winning numbers on TV.

But she couldn't get away from work that week — and had to wait days before she could travel to Kamloops to collect her prize.

"I'm not going to tell my kids until Wednesday," she said to herself. "Then I'm going to have a big mortgage-burning celebration."

Ruby's been paying on that mortgage since moving to Robson in 1978. Now she can concentrate on a college fund for three of her grandchildren — and a trip back to her roots in Ontario.

And Ruby has another burning desire — to dance!

Ballroom or two-step — Ruby's red hot!

Especially after dancing in to visit her Robson bank manager!

John Bloodoff of Castlegar played a 7-Number Combination on Lotto 6/49 last week. There's nothing so unusual about that…lots of people play 7-Number Combinations.

But Mr. Bloodoff's ticket was bought for him by LUCK Radio. That IS special.

The reason is that Mr. Bloodoff called 828-5685 in Kamloops and asked this lottery question: "Is it possible to buy a Quick Pick on a 7-Number Combination, or 8 or 9?"

It's not. The reason is that there hasn't been sufficient player demand for that feature. There is, however, sufficient demand for players to ask lottery questions like this one. All you have to do is call 828-5685 in Kamloops, record it, and hope it's chosen for selection on LUCK Radio.

Just like John Bloodoff did.

Pick Three

Leo, the big burly centre, has really got his hands full with the football playbook this year. As the quarterback shouts out the numbers in practice, Leo can never seem to remember which play is which. So the coach writes three numbers on the toes of Leo's shoes, explaining that when he hears those numbers, he's supposed to hike the ball to the quarterback. It works to perfection, and Leo likes those three numbers so much, he decides to play them on a BC Keno Pick Three. "12-22-38, HUP, HUP, HIKE" he repeats over and over on the way to the lottery retailer. Then, as Leo makes his $5 wager, he suddenly forgets his numbers — and looks down at his shoes. Good thing he still has his "lucky" shoes on! "12-22-38, HUP, HUP, HIKE!"

Spin, win, wearin' that grin!

When Wilda Christiansen went grocery shopping at her local IGA store in Burnaby, she brought home a lot more than the bacon.

"I went there to get bread and milk," Wilda says. "I've become familiar with a lot of the staff there, and one of the girls suggested I try the new spin game."

Wilda thought the girl was talking about Spin of Fortune, the spin-type ticket formerly available to B.C. lottery players.

"I only buy tickets for games I think will be lucky for me," she explains. "So I told the clerk that I didn't play the spin game and she said: 'But it's Musical Spin,' and I said: 'Well, I'll play that tune!'"

Soon, Wilda was singing for joy.

"I bought one Musical Spin and one Blackjack," recalls the mother of two and grandmother of three, "and I took them home and scratched them by myself."

On the left portion of her Musical Spin ticket, which is shaped like the province of B.C., Wilda saw three $10,000 symbols!

"I couldn't believe it," she says. "I just put it in a drawer and didn't tell anyone."

WILDA CHRISTIANSEN

Days later, Wilda returned to the IGA.

"I told the girl that I thought I had won $10,000," Wilda says, "and she looked at the ticket and said: 'You HAVE!'"

It was finally time for Wilda to break the news to her sons Bill and Garry.

"When my son phoned, he told me he had just bought a couple of Lotto 6/49 tickets for me," Wilda says, "and I told him I had just won $10,000. Well, there was dead silence!"

That $10,000 is headed straight for her bank account, while she contemplates how to spend it.

As for her next scratch purchases, Wilda is sure to be "playing that tune" again!

Provincial tickets dated May 17th to June 14th — Bonus prizes of $10, $25, $100 and CARS!

Q. Can I still win on my Happy Mother's Day tickets, now that Mother's Day is over?

Sure you can — and you don't even have to be a mother to play! Like several seasonal or timely scratch games, there are tickets still available, and prizes can be claimed for a full year from the issue date of the tickets.

Everyone knows potato chips go best with chip dip. Well it's the same with Lotto BC and Lotto 6/49. Those games go best with Lucky Dip!

For players who are looking for the quickest way to play $5 on either Lotto BC or Lotto 6/49, Lucky Dip is the answer. Just ask you retailer for a Lucky Dip, and you'll find out just how quick that is.

In a flash, the lottery computer will generate either ten Lotto BC selections or five Lotto 6/49 selections, print them all on one $5 ticket — and chirp out the Lucky Dip melody.

Lucky Dip — a whole ladle of luck — for five bucks!

KATHY, TARA and CHRISTOPHER MOONEY

Port Alberni agrees: Mooney money's magic

Have you seen that new movie, the one about the Port Alberni teacher's aide who has the golden touch?

It's "The Colour of Mooney" — starring 33-year-old mother of two Kathy Mooney!

Kathy's Midas touch with Gold Rush started as she sat in the Pine Cafe with her parents. She casually started scratching a Gold Rush ticket which her mom, Esther Ferrier, had bought at Woodward's in Port Alberni.

Suddenly, she stopped. Kathy couldn't believe it. Neither could her parents.

There were three matching $10,000 symbols!

"We all walked to the retailer to have it validated," Kathy says. "I was so nervous, I couldn't stop shaking!"

But when the shaking stopped, Kathy and her husband Ron knew exactly where the money would go.

Actually, where it already went — across the country!

"We'll pay off last year's summer holiday which we took across Canada," she says. "This is kinda backwards, but it sure helps!"

When not reminiscing about their opportunity to tour the nation coast-to-coast, Kathy also likes to square dance.

In Clearbrook and Delta, two Musical Spin players were doing "double takes" after scratching the middle portion of their tickets.

That's the Money Wheel scratch — where you only need to find a pair of matching symbols to win.

Iverna Ellis had popped in to visit her sister in Clearbrook — with a surprise.

IVERNA ELLIS

"I had told her about this new scratch game," Iverna says, "so I bought us each a Musical Spin. I scratched $10,000 twice (on the centre portion) and read the instructions. Then I said: 'I think I won $10,000!'"

That meant Iverna had fulfilled a lottery oath she had made earlier in the month.

"The funny thing is that only three weeks ago I was looking at LUCK and felt fed up," she says. "So I said: 'I'm gonna get my picture in LUCK Magazine!'"

Iverna's prophecy was right on the money. She has her picture in LUCK — and $10,000 to share with her husband George.

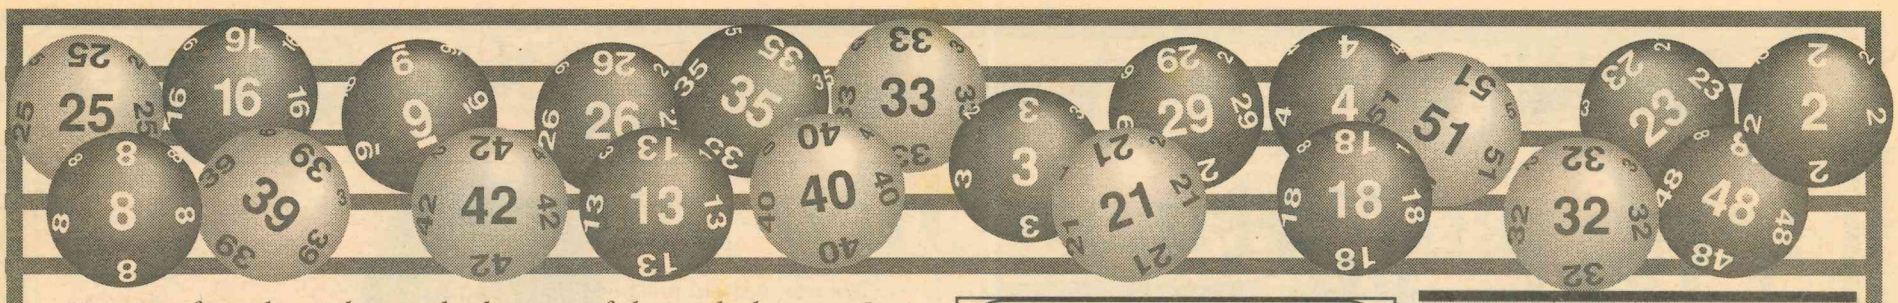
Sharing is also the name of the game for Ken and Ann Junker in Delta. They were also doing a "double take" — on just the second Musical Spin ticket they bought.

"We won two bottles of Pepsi on the first," Ken says, "and I gave the second one to Ann to scratch. We were just elated after reading the rules to make sure we had won!"

Ken and Ann will use part of that prize on an upcoming cruise to Alaska.

Musical Spin really was a double delight for them!

KEN and ANN JUNKER



You just found a ticket at the bottom of the sock drawer. Or in your tool box. Or how about the glove compartment of the family car? It has several months of dust on it, but it's not more than a year old. That means it can still be a winner. Tickets like that for ALL games can be checked on these two pages. They'll be updated every week, so that it'll always be possible for LUCK readers to check numbers of any lottery ticket that hasn't expired.

Two wheels, two chances for spinners

Musical Spin players who find two wheel symbols in the middle portion of their tickets have even more reasons to sing for joy.

In addition to cash prizes on the wheel — where spinners can win up to $100,000 — cash winners may ALSO receive merchandise prizes!

Some spinners who win $10,000 could win trips for two anywhere AirBC flies, while some spinners who win $25,000 may also win trips for two anywhere Air Canada flies. And any winners of $5,000 on the wheel will also win a year's supply of Pepsi (6-packs of Pepsi for 52 weeks).

Now, that's a "wheely" great deal!

Fishing guide nets 6/49 whopper

When Victoria fishing guide Larry Yarmie hooks a big one, he knows how to land it.

And that's exactly what happened when Larry threw out his line on a Lotto 6/49 ticket. He ended up reeling in a prize catch of $75,619.20.

After returning from a holiday, he went in to have his ticket validated.

"The clerk says: 'Well, you've won a dollar... oh migawd, you've won $75,000,'" recalls Larry. "I was jumping all around the store and howling. I almost fainted. I shook all the way home."

Larry was guiding a fisherman who caught a 61-pound tyee.

"This was the largest fish caught while we guided this year, so it's been a good year," he adds.

After learning of the win, Larry drove to his daughter's school. There, he picked up Tara (10), told her the good news and allowed her to play "hookey" for the occasion.

The only bad news came when his trailer blew over in a storm. However, the windfall will look after that — he's putting a down payment on a house. Mr. Yarmie also plans to pay off his new boat.

No more dreaming about "the one that got away." Now Larry Yarmie can tell his grandkids about the day he really did reel in the BIG one.

Thinking ahead to Advance Buy

So you have your vacation all planned, right down to the last detail.

Your bags are packed. You've double-checked all your reservations. Your neighbour Alice will be watering your plants and collecting your mail, and Ted from across the street will get his son Leroy to mow your lawn and feed your dog. You've told the paper boy not to deliver until you get back.

But if you think you have all your bases covered, think again.

What about your Lotto 6/49 tickets?

There is a way, you know, to play even while you're gone. Just mark off the appropriate box in the Advance Buy column on your 6/49 selection slip, and your numbers will be entered for up to 10 consecutive draws.

You can even Advance Buy a Quick Pick set of numbers, by telling your retailer how many draws — from two to 10 — you want to play in advance. That will be the same six numbers for the duration of your Advance Buy purchase.

Playing Advance Buy is still $1 per draw, and you'll receive one ticket listing your draw dates and numbers.

Now, you can leave for your vacation, knowing that you could be coming home to a Lotto 6/49 Jackpot — thanks to your Advance Buy preparation!

Lucky Dip Bonus is Surrey sporty

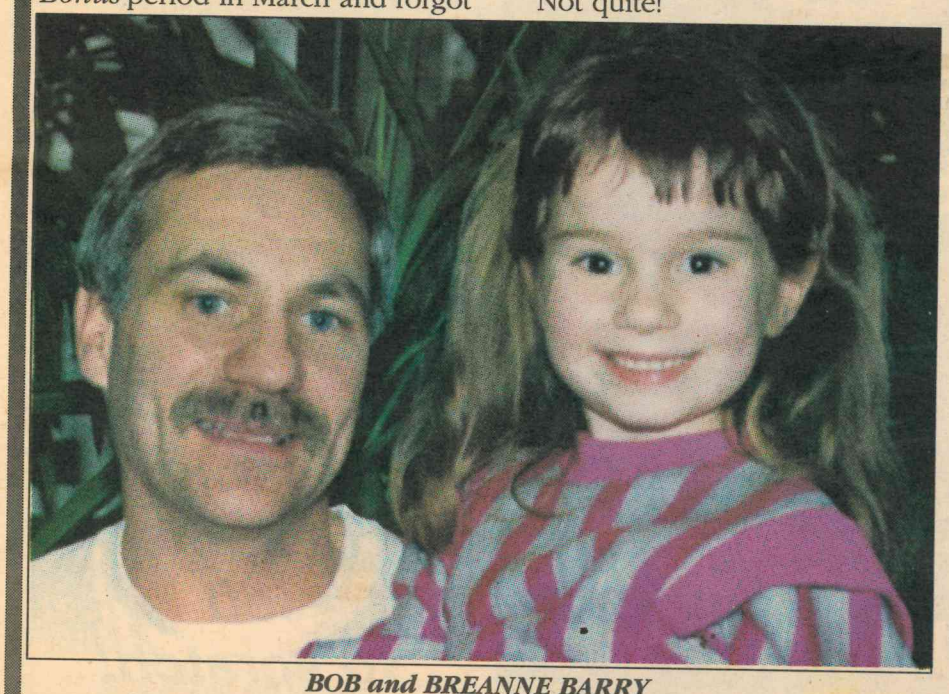
Surrey's Bob Barry thought he had won $5 playing Lotto BC.

But his lottery retailer told Bob he'd also won a "wheel" deal.

A brand-new Jeep Cherokee!

Bob bought his Lotto BC Lucky Dip Bonus ticket during the last Bonus period in March and forgot about it. The 38-year-old route driver for Weston Bakery gave the ticket to his wife Debbie, and it was days later that he got it back to cash it — for what he thought would be just another $5 prize.

Not quite!



BOB and BREANNE BARRY

"I was very excited," says Bob, who matched one of the Lotto BC Lucky Dip Bonus sets of numbers on that draw. "I felt like I was in a trance! What a day!"

Bob and Debbie have four children: Sheila (13), Tara (10), Brent (9) and Breanne (5).

With that much kidpower under the family hood, it's no wonder Bob decided to wave good-bye to the sporty Jeep.

He'll take the $25,000 cash equivalent instead — giving him a total prize of $25,005.

And Bob will now be looking for something to fit the whole Barry brood.

"I might buy a mini-van," he says.

Bob loves to spend time camping and fishing with the family. And he'll also find the new wheels handy in his role as a Cub leader.

And when his friends ask him how much he paid for those new wheels, he can say:

"Just five dollars, because of my Lotto BC Lucky Dip Bonus ticket!"

Calling for winning numbers

In order to provide better service for lottery players who call the winning numbers lines, more phone lines than ever are available by calling one number. Now it's easier than ever to find out if you've won!

All winning numbers are now available by calling 270-8402. When you call that number, you then select which games you want the winning numbers for by saying the word "lotto" after the game name or, if you are calling from a touch tone telephone, simply press the digit on your telephone keypad which corresponds to the game. Just follow the verbal instructions on the recording.

This service provides the possibility for more people to listen to the winning numbers recordings at one time, so there will be less waiting and fewer busy signals.

The same service is available in the Kamloops and Victoria areas. In the Kamloops area, call 828-5595. In Victoria, call 388-4142.

Fortune finds signs of Zodiac

Some people trust the slips of wisdom they find in fortune cookies. Others have their palms read, or rely on crystal ball gazers, tarot card readers or tea-leaf interpreters.

But there's one fortune-telling tradition that continues to be the most popular — checking your horoscope.

Most people know which of the 12 signs of the Zodiac they were born under — and that makes choosing the right Zodiac scratch ticket easy.

Of course, you don't have to buy your own sign to be a winner. Just find three identical prize amounts under the latex covering on any Zodiac ticket, and you could be in for a fortune-telling fortune.

Prizes include $2, $5, $10, $100, $1,000 and the top Zodiac prize — $10,000!

There's another scratch on the ticket, too. It's a just-for-fun scratch called Fortune Teller. There are no prizes here, just a friendly word – or words – of wisdom that relate to your special sign.

It's all happy fortune-hunting — on Zodiac!

ANNE MARIE McGUINNESS

Luck finds Port Moody lotto lass

Some things were meant to be. Or, if you were to ask Port Moody's Anne Marie McGuinness, you could say this:

"It was in the cards."

Anne Marie was going out for a day of shopping when her mother reminded her to buy a lottery ticket. Knowing it was her lucky month, she bought five scratch tickets.

On the last ticket she scratched, she won $10,000.

Anne Marie had her tarot cards read last September. The reader predicted she would win a large quantity of money in 1991.

And she did.

She scratched the ticket in her car and, realizing she had won, raced home to share the news with her parents. She walked in and yelled: "I won $10,000!"

Then she spent an hour and a half on the phone, telling friends.

Anne Marie is a registered nurse at Vancouver General Hospital, but has always lived in Port Moody, and with her winnings she plans to put a down payment on an apartment.

Ms McGuinness plays both scratch tickets and Lotto 6/49. Superstition aside, she doesn't plan to change her playing style.

But she WILL try to find that tarot card reader.

Plenty of spins left to scratch!
